

GunCrisis.org: Seeking Solutions to Gun Violence in Philadelphia with Digital Journalism

Tuesday, April 2
4:30–5:30 PM
Scheuer Room

On average, at least 1 person has been murdered in Philadelphia every day over the last 25 years, and more than 3/4 of them have been killed with a gun.

The Gun Crisis Reporting Project (GunCrisis.org) is a non-profit independent journalism organization intended to fill the gaps in gun violence reporting, and to help seek solutions.

Join us for this public lecture with Jim MacMillan, founder of GunCrisis.org and Assistant Director for the Center for Public Interest Journalism at Temple University.

Sponsored by the Lang Center for Civic and Social Responsibility
